4. প্রতিদিন 2–3টি essay পড়ো। একটি essay বেছে নিয়ে, model না দেখে, নিজের ভাষায় আবার লেখো (40 মিনিট)।
5. প্রতিটি essay-র শব্দসংখ্যা দেওয়া আছে। Advantages & Disadvantages essay-গুলো আলাদা guide মেনে লেখা: Intro 40–50 · BP1 120–135 · BP2 120–135 · Conclusion 35–45 = 330–360; মতামত না চাইলে (Type 1) Intro 30–40 · Conclusion 25–35 = 310–340। Agree / Disagree essay-গুলো আলাদা guide মেনে লেখা: Intro 35–50 · BP1 100–120 · BP2 100–120 · Conclusion 35–55 = 270–345। Discuss Both Views essay-গুলো আলাদা guide মেনে লেখা: Intro 35–45 · BP1 90–120 · BP2 90–120 · Conclusion 35–45 = 260–299। Cause/Problem + Solution essay-গুলো আলাদা guide মেনে লেখা: Intro 30–40 · BP1 90–120 · BP2 90–120 · Conclusion 30–40 = 260–300। Double Question essay-গুলো আলাদা guide মেনে লেখা: Intro 30–40 · BP1 90–120 · BP2 90–120 · Conclusion 30–40 = 260–300।

The PEEL(R) paragraph method

| Label | Meaning | What the sentence does | Typical linkers |
|---|---|---|---|
| Point | Topic sentence | States the main idea of the paragraph | The main reason… / Firstly… / However, I believe… |
| Explain | Explanation | Says why or how the point is true (often 2–3 sentences) | This is because… / Since… / As a result… |
| Example | Example | Gives a specific, realistic example | For example… / For instance… / In Bangladesh… |
| Link | Link / result | Connects back to the question or shows the result | Therefore… / As a result… / In this way… |

| Label | Meaning | What the sentence does | Typical linkers |
|---|---|---|---|
| Response | Response to the other side | Admits the opposite view, then answers it (the R in PEELR) | Admittedly… / Although… / However, … |
| Topic | Topic sentence (Adv/Disadv only) | Opens the paragraph with a fixed sentence | There is little doubt that… / On the other hand, it cannot be denied that… |
| Summary | Summary (Adv/Disadv only) | Sums up the paragraph in general words | Overall, … / Although these… |
| Solution | Solution (Cause/Problem + Solution only) | Says who acts and what they do | The most effective solution is for… / In addition, … |

> PEEL বনাম PEELR: সাধারণ body paragraph-এ PEEL যথেষ্ট। কিন্তু opinion বা discussion essay-তে যখন বিপরীত মতকে মেনে নিয়ে জবাব দিতে হয় ("Admittedly… However…"), তখন R (Response) যোগ করো — এতে লেখা আরও পরিণত ও যুক্তিপূর্ণ দেখায়, যা Band 7-এর জন্য গুরুত্বপূর্ণ।

> Advantages & Disadvantages essay (1টি) — নতুন নির্দিষ্ট কাঠামো (IELTS_Advantages_Disadvantages_Essay_Guide.md অনুযায়ী):
> - Introduction: প্রশ্নের paraphrase → Although + যে দিক তুমি সমর্থন করো না (2 point), + যে দিক তুমি সমর্থন করো (2 point), but

ছাড়া → মতামত (শুধু প্রশ্ন মতামত চাইলে)।

- Body 1 = সুবিধা, Body 2 = অসুবিধা — প্রতিটিতে ঠিক 7টি বাক্য: Topic → Point → Explain → Example → Point → Explain → Summary ।
- Body 1 linker: There is little doubt that... → To begin with → This is because → For example → In addition → As a result → Overall।
- Body 2 linker: On the other hand, it cannot be denied that... → Firstly → "; as a result," → For instance → Secondly → If... consequently → শেষ বাক্য: Type 1 হলে Overall, these...; সুবিধার পক্ষে হলে Although these [problems]..., most...; অসুবিধার পক্ষে হলে Although some [people]..., these [problems] often...।
- Conclusion: In conclusion + নতুন paraphrase → While + দুই দিক, Although বাক্যের একই ক্রমে → মতামত আবার বলো (শুধু প্রশ্ন মতামত চাইলে)।
- 🚫 প্রশ্ন মতামত না চাইলে (Type 1): Introduction ও Conclusion-এ মাত্র 2টি বাক্য। মতামত লিখবে না, আর "This essay will examine both the benefits and the drawbacks..." ধরনের plan sentence-ও লিখবে না — এটি মুখস্থ করা বাক্য মনে হয় এবং নতুন কোনো idea যোগ করে না। Introduction শেষ হবে Although বাক্যে, essay শেষ হবে While বাক্যে।
- ⭐ Emphasis rule: Although/While বাক্যে পাঠক সবসময় শেষের idea (comma-র পরের অংশ)-কে তোমার মত হিসেবে ধরে। তাই সুবিধার পক্ষে হলে আগে অসুবিধা, পরে সুবিধা; অসুবিধার পক্ষে হলে আগে সুবিধা, পরে অসুবিধা। Type 1-এ (মতামত নেই) সাধারণত আগে অসুবিধা, পরে সুবিধা।

Agree / Disagree essay (11টি) — নতুন নির্দিষ্ট কাঠামো (IELTS_Agree_Disagree_Essay_Guide.md অনুযায়ী):

- 🚫 কখনো আংশিক উত্তর নয়: শুরু থেকে শেষ পর্যন্ত একটিই পক্ষ। "partly agree", "largely agree", "to some extent" লিখবে না।
- Introduction (2টি বাক্য): প্রশ্নের paraphrase → I completely agree/disagree with this view because + Idea 1 + Idea 2।
- Body 1 = Idea 1: Point → Explain → Explain → Example → Link ।
- Body 1 linker: The main reason why I agree/disagree with this idea is that… → This is because… → "; as a result," → For example… → Therefore…।
- Body 2 = Idea 2: Point → Explain → Example → Response → Link ।
- Body 2 linker: Another important reason for my agreement/disagreement is that… → When… → For instance… → Although some people argue that…, [তোমার পক্ষ] → Consequently…।
- Conclusion (2টি বাক্য): In conclusion, I firmly believe that… → Idea 1 ও Idea 2 নতুন শব্দে। নতুন কোনো idea নয়।
- ⭐ Response বাক্য: বিপরীত মত থাকবে Although অংশে, আর তোমার পক্ষ থাকবে comma-র পরে, but ছাড়া। তাই উত্তর আংশিক হয় না।

Discuss Both Views essay (5টি) — নতুন নির্দিষ্ট কাঠামো (IELTS_Discuss_Both_Views_Essay_Guide.md অনুযায়ী):

- 🚫 কখনো আংশিক উত্তর নয়: একটিই স্পষ্ট মত। "both views are important", "it depends" লিখবে না।

- ⭐ Order rule: বিপরীত মত সবসময় আগে, তোমার মত সবসময় শেষে। তাই "the latter view" সবসময় তোমার পক্ষকেই বোঝায়।
- Introduction: While some people argue that [বিপরীত মত], others believe that [তোমার মত]. → I completely support the latter view because [মূল কারণ].
- Body 1 = বিপরীত মত ("I" ছাড়া): Point → Explain → Explain → Example → Link |
- Body 1 linker: On the one hand, people who… argue that… → For example… → For this reason, many people believe that…।
- Body 2 = তোমার মত: Point → Explain → Example → Response → Link |
- Body 2 linker: On the other hand, I firmly believe that… because… → For instance… → Although some people argue that [Body 1-এর যুক্তি], [তোমার পক্ষ] → Consequently…।
- Conclusion (2টি বাক্য): In conclusion, people hold different views on whether… → While [বিপরীত মত], I firmly believe that [তোমার মত] because [কারণ]।
- শব্দসংখ্যা: সবসময় 300-এর নিচে। সহজ হিসাব: 40 + 100 + 100 + 40 = 280।

Cause/Problem + Solution essay (1টি) — নতুন নির্দিষ্ট কাঠামো (IELTS_Cause_Problem_Solution_Essay_Guide.md অনুযায়ী):

- ⭐ ধরন চেনো: শুধু প্রথম প্রশ্নটি দেখো। কেন ঘটছে জানতে চাইলে Cause essay, কী ক্ষতি হচ্ছে জানতে চাইলে Problem essay। প্রশ্নে "this problem" থাকলেই সেটি Problem essay হয় না।

- 🚫 মতামত নয়: প্রশ্ন না চাইলে "I think" বা "In my opinion" লিখবে না। "This essay will..." বাক্যও লিখবে না।
- Introduction (2টি বাক্য): paraphrase → 2টি কারণ বা সমস্যা, but + 2টি সমাধান।
- Body 1 = 2টি কারণ বা সমস্যা: Point → Explain → Example → Point → Explain → Link ।
- Body 2 = 2টি সমাধান: Solution → Explain → Example → Solution → Explain → Link ।
- ⭐ Mirror rule: সমাধান 1 ঠিক করে কারণ বা সমস্যা 1, সমাধান 2 ঠিক করে কারণ বা সমস্যা 2। প্রতিটি সমাধানে থাকবে কে করবে, কী করবে, আর তাতে কীভাবে কাজ হবে (WHO + WHAT + HOW)।
- Conclusion (2টি বাক্য): কারণ বা সমস্যা নতুন শব্দে → সমাধান নতুন শব্দে + চূড়ান্ত ফল। নতুন কোনো idea নয়।
- শব্দসংখ্যা: সহজ হিসাব: 35 + 105 + 105 + 35 = 280।
- একই পরিবারের অন্য প্রশ্ন (guide Section 14): শুধু সমাধান, দুই পক্ষের সমাধান, বা শুধু সমস্যা চাইলে প্রতিটি body paragraph-এ একটিই idea: Point / Solution → Explain → Explain → Example → Link । মতামত নয়।

Double Question essay (3টি) — নতুন নির্দিষ্ট কাঠামো (IELTS_Double_Question_Essay_Guide.md অনুযায়ী):

- ⭐ ভাগ করো: Q1 যাবে Body 1-এ, Q2 যাবে Body 2-এ, প্রশ্নের ক্রমেই। প্রতিটি প্রশ্ন আলাদা করে পরীক্ষা করো।
- পক্ষ বেছে নিতে হলে (হ্যাঁ/না, ভালো/খারাপ) = Opinion block: Point (I firmly believe that... because...) → Explain →

Example → Response (Although some people argue that...) → Link (Therefore...)। Body 2-তে শুরু: As for whether...

- কেন / কী / কীভাবে জানতে চাইলে = List block (2টি idea): Point → Explain → Example → Point → Explain → Link (Consequently... / Together, these measures would...)। সমাধান হলে Point-এর জায়গায় Solution । List block-এ "I" লিখবে না।
- ⭐ "do you think" ফাঁদ: প্রশ্নের প্রথম শব্দ দেখো। Why do you think...? আসলে কারণ চায় (List), মত নয়।
- ⭐ "other" ফাঁদ: প্রশ্নে other থাকলে প্রশ্নে দেওয়া idea বাদ দিয়ে নতুন idea লেখো।
- Introduction (2টি বাক্য): paraphrase → [উত্তর 1], and [উত্তর 2]। মতের কারণ Introduction-এ নয়, Opinion block-এর শুরুতে।
- Conclusion (2টি বাক্য): In conclusion, [উত্তর 1 নতুন শব্দে]. [উত্তর 2 নতুন শব্দে]. কোনো প্রশ্নই মত না চাইলে (List + List) কোথাও "I" নয়।
- শব্দসংখ্যা: সহজ হিসাব: 35 + 105 + 105 + 35 = 280।

1. MED-01 — Companies sponsoring sport

Some companies sponsor sports as a way to advertise themselves. Some people think it is good, while others think there are disadvantages to this. Discuss both sides and give your opinion.

|---|---|
| Essay type | Discussion (both views + opinion) |
| Position | Company sponsorship is good for sport. |
| Ideas from Idea Bank (Part 3) | Sponsorship and Marketing |
| Structure | Discuss Both Views guide: Both views + clean opinion → BP1 the other view (P E E X L) → BP2 my view (P E X R L) → Both themes + opinion in new words |
| Reused from Idea Bank | 5 sentences (highlighted) |
| Word count | Intro 36 · BP1 100 · BP2 113 · Conclusion 39 · Total 288 |

Introduction · 36 words

While some people argue that company sponsorship of sport has serious disadvantages, others believe that it is good for sport. I completely support the latter view because this money provides valuable funding for clubs and players.

Body Paragraph 1 · 100 words

Point On the one hand, people who criticise sponsorship argue that some sponsors sell products that are harmful to health, such as fast food, sugary drinks. Explain When these brands are associated with sport, which is supposed to promote health, young fans may receive confusing messages. Explain Unhealthy products are made to look attractive through famous players; as a result, children may want them. Example For example, a soft-drink company sponsoring a cricket tournament may persuade children that sugary drinks are part of an active life, and this can lead to poor eating habits. Link For this reason, many people believe that sponsorship is harmful.

Body Paragraph 2 · 113 words

Point On the other hand, I firmly believe that sponsorship is good because sponsorship money can fund better facilities, pay players and support young athletes and grassroots clubs. Explain When clubs receive this money, they do not need high ticket prices, and without sponsors, many tournaments and teams could not exist. Example For instance, a bank that sponsors a national football league may pay for youth training programmes across the country, which gives poor children a chance to develop their talent. Response Although some people argue that unhealthy brands send confusing messages, this problem does not outweigh the opportunities that sponsors create for players and fans. Link Consequently, company sponsorship brings real benefits to the world of sport.

Conclusion · 39 words

In conclusion, people hold different views on whether company sponsorship is good for sport. While some sponsors promote unhealthy products, I firmly believe that it is positive because this money supports clubs, players and young athletes across the country.

2. MED-02 — Does media violence promote violence in society?

Violence in the media promotes violence in society. To what extent do you agree?

|---|---|
| Essay type | Agree / Disagree |
| Position | I completely disagree. |
| Ideas from Idea Bank (Part 3) | Television and Children's Behaviour · Fake News and Misinformation · Ch. 07 Crime Idea Bank: Media, Video Games and Violence (the Crime sheet has another answer to this question) |
| Structure | Agree/Disagree guide: Opinion + 2 ideas → BP1 Idea 1 (P E E X L) → BP2 Idea 2 (P E X R L) → Opinion + 2 ideas in new words |
| Reused from Idea Bank | 4 sentences (highlighted) |
| Word count | Intro 41 · BP1 116 · BP2 118 · Conclusion 37 · Total 312 |

Introduction · 41 words

It is often argued that violent content on television, in films and online is making real society more violent. I completely disagree with this view because most viewers never copy what they watch and the media can also teach positive values.

Body Paragraph 1 · 116 words

Point The main reason why I disagree with this idea is that most viewers never copy what they watch. Explain This is because the vast majority of people who watch violent films or play violent games never become violent in real life. Explain Violence in society is usually caused by deeper problems, such as poverty, family breakdown, drug use and anger; as a result, it is unfair to blame screens for it. Example For example, a young man who joins a street fight is usually driven by poverty or family breakdown, while millions of people who enjoy the same action films never hurt anyone. Link Therefore, the link between violent media and real violence is far weaker than many people believe.

Body Paragraph 2 · 118 words

Point Another important reason for my disagreement is that the media can also teach positive values. Explain When children watch good programmes with their parents, they learn, because high-quality programmes can teach children positive values, such as kindness, cooperation and respect. Example For instance, a film that shows the pain of a family who lost a son in a street fight can make young viewers think carefully, which may discourage them from fighting. Response Although some people argue that young children often copy the words, actions and attitudes they see on screen, television channels and streaming services can support parents through age ratings, parental controls and responsible scheduling. Link Consequently, the media is more often a useful teacher than a cause of violence.

Conclusion · 37 words

In conclusion, I firmly believe that violence on screens does not cause violence in society. Almost all viewers remain peaceful in real life, and good films and programmes can also encourage respect and kindness among young people.

3. MED-03 — Is all news true? What is a newspaper for?

Most people think that the truth should be objective rather than subjective when it comes to the news. Do you think all news is true? What is the function of a newspaper?

|---|---|
| Essay type | Double Question — Opinion + List (opinion + functions) |
| Position | Not all news is true; a newspaper's functions are to inform the public and to act as a watchdog. |
| Ideas from Idea Bank (Part 3) | News Values: Bad News, Objectivity and Photographs · Media Responsibility and Press Freedom |
| Structure | Double Question guide (Opinion + List): Answer 1 + answer 2 → BP1 = Q1, Opinion block (P E X R L) → BP2 = Q2, List block (P E X P E L) → Both answers in new words |
| Reused from Idea Bank | 4 sentences (highlighted) |
| Word count | Intro 37 · BP1 97 · BP2 97 · Conclusion 35 · Total 266 |

Introduction · 37 words

Most people believe that news reports should present objective facts rather than personal opinions. I firmly believe that not all news is true, and newspapers exist mainly to inform the public and to hold powerful people accountable.

Body Paragraph 1 · 97 words

Point I firmly believe that not all news is true because every report is shaped by human choices. Explain Journalists and editors must choose which stories to cover, which facts to include and which words to use, and these choices can reflect their own views or those of the owners. Example For example, two newspapers may report the same election result in very different ways, depending on which political party their owners support. Response Although some people argue that trained journalists report only facts, in reality, complete objectivity is difficult. Link Therefore, readers should compare several sources instead of believing every report.

Body Paragraph 2 · 97 words

Point One important function of a newspaper is to inform the public accurately about events that affect their lives. Explain Good journalism helps citizens make informed decisions, especially during elections. Example For instance, a voter who reads a clear report on each party's plans for healthcare can choose a candidate based on facts, which strengthens democracy. Point Another important function is to act as a watchdog over people in power. Explain A free press also plays a watchdog role, investigating corruption and holding powerful people accountable. Link Consequently, newspapers remain essential for a healthy democracy, even though they are not always perfectly objective.

Conclusion · 35 words

In conclusion, I firmly believe that news is not always true because journalists and owners make choices that reflect their views.

Newspapers still matter because they keep citizens informed and expose the misuse of power.

4. MED-04 — Are news photographs reliable?

More and more newspapers and news channels are using photographs to support their news articles and stories. Some people think that photographs are not a reliable source of news, while others consider photographs to be irrefutable. Discuss both sides and give your opinion.

|---|---|
| Essay type | Discussion (both views + opinion) |
| Position | Photographs are not a reliable source of news. |
| Ideas from Idea Bank (Part 3) | News Values: Bad News, Objectivity and Photographs · Fake News and Misinformation · Social Media versus Traditional News |
| Structure | Discuss Both Views guide: Both views + clean opinion → BP1 the other view (P E E X L) → BP2 my view (P E X R L) → Both themes + opinion in new words |
| Reused from Idea Bank | 4 sentences (highlighted) |
| Word count | Intro 35 · BP1 92 · BP2 112 · Conclusion 43 · Total 282 |

Introduction · 35 words

While some people argue that news photographs are undeniable proof of events, others believe that they are not a reliable source of information. I completely support the latter view because images can easily be changed.

Body Paragraph 1 · 92 words

Point On the one hand, people who trust photographs argue that a picture shows exactly what really happened. Explain A single image of a flood or a war can communicate more emotion than many paragraphs. Explain Written reports can easily be exaggerated; as a result, a photograph seems more honest and direct to many readers. Example For example, photographs of flooded villages in Bangladesh can show the true scale of a disaster more clearly than a written report, and this makes readers trust the news. Link For this reason, many people believe that photographs cannot be questioned.

Body Paragraph 2 · 112 words

Point On the other hand, I firmly believe that photographs are not reliable because they can be edited digitally, taken out of context, or chosen to present only one side of a story. Explain When a picture is shared without information about its time and place, readers cannot know what really happened, and many users share stories without reading them fully or checking the source. Example For instance, an old photograph of a fire may be shared online as if it showed a new event, which can cause panic. Response Although some people argue that a picture cannot lie, with modern technology, even video can be faked. Link Consequently, photographs should not be treated as reliable news.

Conclusion · 43 words

In conclusion, people hold different views on whether news photographs are reliable or undeniable. While a strong image can show the scale of an event, I firmly believe that photographs are not reliable because they can be edited or used out of context.

5. MED-05 — Why is most news bad news?

The majority of news being reported is bad news, such as wars, famines, accidents and crime. Why do you think that is? Do you think the news should be a balance of both good and bad news?

|---|---|
| Essay type | Double Question — List + Opinion (reasons + opinion) |
| Position | Bad news attracts attention and earns advertising money; the news should be a balance of good and bad stories. |
| Ideas from Idea Bank (Part 3) | News Values: Bad News, Objectivity and Photographs · Social Media versus Traditional News |
| Reused from Idea Bank | 2 sentences (highlighted) |
| Word count | Intro 40 · BP1 91 · BP2 110 · Conclusion 37 · Total 278 |

Introduction · 40 words

Most news reports focus on negative events such as wars, accidents and crime. This is mainly because bad news attracts attention and earns money, and I firmly believe that the news should be a balance of good and bad stories.

Body Paragraph 1 · 91 words

Point One of the main reasons for this is that bad news attracts attention. Explain Humans naturally pay more attention to danger, and dramatic or shocking stories attract more viewers, readers and clicks. Example For example, a serious road accident is far more likely to appear on the front page than a successful community project, and this sells more papers. Point Another important reason is commercial pressure. Explain Because news organisations depend on audiences for advertising income, they have a commercial incentive to focus on such stories. Link Consequently, the most dramatic events usually lead the news.

Body Paragraph 2 · 110 words

Point As for whether the news should be balanced, I firmly believe that it should because constant bad news gives people a false picture of the world. Explain When viewers see only disasters and crimes, they may think that life is getting worse, even though health and education are improving in many areas. Example For instance, a mother who watches only reports of crime may become too afraid to let her children play outside, which harms their health and confidence. Response Although some people argue that serious problems must always come first, positive stories can still be reported alongside them. Link Therefore, a fair mix of good and bad news would serve the public better.

Conclusion · 37 words

In conclusion, bad news dominates because it attracts audiences and brings in advertising money. I firmly believe that the news should mix good and bad stories because this gives people a more accurate view of the world.

6. MED-06 — Should famous people have no right to privacy?

In the last few decades, there have been more and more cases of famous people being hounded by the press. Some people think that famous people in the media should have no right to privacy. To what extent do you agree?

|---|---|
| Essay type | Agree / Disagree |
| Position | I completely disagree. |
| Ideas from Idea Bank (Part 3) | Privacy of Famous People · Media Responsibility and Press Freedom — this essay also answers COM-08, which asks the same question in different words |
| Structure | Agree/Disagree guide: Opinion + 2 ideas → BP1 Idea 1 (P E E X L) → BP2 Idea 2 (P E X R L) → Opinion + 2 ideas in new words |
| Reused from Idea Bank | 5 sentences (highlighted) |
| Word count | Intro 44 · BP1 109 · BP2 118 · Conclusion 38 · Total 309 |

Introduction · 44 words

As the press follows famous people more and more closely, it is sometimes claimed that these people should have no right to privacy. I completely disagree with this view because celebrities are human beings who need personal space and their families are also affected.

Body Paragraph 1 · 109 words

Point The main reason why I disagree with this idea is that celebrities are human beings who need personal space, just like everyone else. Explain This is because constant attention from photographers and journalists can cause stress, anxiety and depression. Explain Much celebrity reporting is not in the public interest; it is simply gossip; as a result, this harm brings no real benefit to society. Example For example, a singer who is followed to a hospital by photographers may have to deal with a private illness in public, and this gossip helps nobody while making a difficult time more painful. Link Therefore, being famous should not mean losing all control over one's private life.

Body Paragraph 2 · 118 words

Point Another important reason for my disagreement is that the press also harms innocent family members. Explain When journalists chase a celebrity, the whole family can suffer, because the children did not choose to be famous, yet they may be photographed at school or in the park and have their lives discussed publicly. Example For instance, a famous footballer's young daughter may be bullied at school after a story about her parents appears online, which is unfair to a child who has done nothing wrong. Response Although some people argue that many celebrities actively seek publicity to build their careers, this choice applies to their work and not to their homes. Link Consequently, the press should keep celebrities' children out of its stories.

Conclusion · 38 words

In conclusion, I firmly believe that well-known people should keep their right to a private life. Constant media attention damages their mental health, and it also causes real harm to relatives who never chose to be public figures.

7. MED-07 — Is there a future for radio?

With the development of online media, there is no future for the radio. To what extent do you agree?

|---|---|
| Essay type | Agree / Disagree |
| Position | I completely disagree. |
| Ideas from Idea Bank (Part 3) | Social Media versus Traditional News · Media Responsibility and Press Freedom (emergencies) |
| Structure | Agree/Disagree guide: Opinion + 2 ideas → BP1 Idea 1 (P E E X L) → BP2 Idea 2 (P E X R L) → Opinion + 2 ideas in new words |
| Reused from Idea Bank | 4 sentences (highlighted) |
| Word count | Intro 41 · BP1 106 · BP2 102 · Conclusion 38 · Total 287 |

Introduction · 41 words

It is sometimes claimed that radio has no future because online media has become so popular. I completely disagree with this view because radio is useful in situations where the internet is not and it is also adapting to new technology.

Body Paragraph 1 · 106 words

Point The main reason why I disagree with this idea is that radio is useful in situations where the internet is not. Explain This is because people can listen while driving, working or cooking, so they do not need to look at a screen. Explain It is important in rural areas and during emergencies when electricity or internet access is limited; as a result, millions of people still depend on it. Example For example, during a cyclone, coastal villagers without electricity can still receive important warnings on a battery radio, and this information can save many lives. Link Therefore, radio continues to provide a service that online media cannot always offer.

Body Paragraph 2 · 102 words

Point Another important reason for my disagreement is that radio is also adapting to new technology. Explain When listeners move online, radio stations can follow them, as many radio stations now broadcast online as podcasts, adapting to new technology. Example For instance, a young person who misses a favourite radio programme can download it to their phone and listen on the way to work, which gives the station a new audience. Response Although some people argue that online media will make radio disappear, radio is cheap, simple and easy to use, even for elderly people. Link Consequently, radio will continue to have a place in modern life.

Conclusion · 38 words

In conclusion, I firmly believe that radio will survive in spite of the growth of online media. It remains valuable wherever screens and internet connections are impractical, and its move to digital platforms also brings it new listeners.

8. MED-08 — Television content or viewing time?

Some people believe that what children watch on television influences their behaviour. Others say that the amount of time spent watching television influences their behaviour. Discuss both views and give your own opinion.

|---|---|
| Essay type | Discussion (both views + opinion) |
| Position | The amount of time spent watching has the greater effect on children's behaviour. |
| Ideas from Idea Bank (Part 3) | Television and Children's Behaviour |
| Structure | Discuss Both Views guide: Both views + clean opinion → BP1 the other view (P E E X L) → BP2 my view (P E X R L) → Both themes + opinion in new words |
| Reused from Idea Bank | 6 sentences (highlighted) |
| Word count | Intro 36 · BP1 92 · BP2 112 · Conclusion 44 · Total 284 |

Introduction · 36 words

While some people argue that children's behaviour is influenced by the content of television programmes, others believe that viewing time matters more. I completely support the latter view because long hours of television replace healthy activities.

Body Paragraph 1 · 92 words

Point On the one hand, people who focus on content argue that children learn by imitation. Explain Young children often copy the words, actions and attitudes they see on screen. Explain If they watch programmes that show violence, rudeness or dangerous stunts, they may repeat this behaviour at home or at school. Example For example, a young child who watches fighting cartoons every day may start hitting classmates in the playground, and this behaviour can be difficult to change later. Link For this reason, many people believe that what children watch on television shapes how they behave.

Body Paragraph 2 · 112 words

Point On the other hand, I firmly believe that viewing time matters more because children who watch television for many hours a day spend less time playing outside, reading, talking with family and making friends. Explain When children lose these activities, they have fewer chances to learn social skills, and their concentration can suffer. Example For instance, a child watching cartoons for five hours a day may struggle to concentrate in class, which can lead to restless behaviour. Response Although some people argue that violent programmes teach bad behaviour, even excellent educational programmes can be harmful if children watch them for many hours. Link Consequently, time in front of a screen has the greater effect on behaviour.

Conclusion · 44 words

In conclusion, people hold different views on whether the content of programmes or the hours spent watching affect children's behaviour more. While violent shows can encourage copying, I firmly believe that viewing time matters more because long hours take children away from healthy activities.

9. MED-09 — Will streaming services close cinemas?

Some people think that cinemas will one day close due to the popularity of online streaming services for films and series. Do you agree or disagree?

|---|---|
| Essay type | Agree / Disagree |
| Position | I completely disagree. |
| Ideas from Idea Bank (Part 3) | Films, Cinema and Streaming Services |
| Structure | Agree/Disagree guide: Opinion + 2 ideas → BP1 Idea 1 (P E E X L) → BP2 Idea 2 (P E X R L) → Opinion + 2 ideas in new words |
| Reused from Idea Bank | 6 sentences (highlighted) |
| Word count | Intro 41 · BP1 107 · BP2 106 · Conclusion 36 · Total 290 |

Introduction · 41 words

It is sometimes claimed that cinemas will eventually shut down because online film and series services have become so popular. I completely disagree with this view because home viewing cannot replace the cinema experience and cinemas are adapting to attract audiences.

Body Paragraph 1 · 107 words

Point The main reason why I disagree with this idea is that cinemas offer an experience that home viewing cannot fully replace.

Explain This is because the big screen, powerful sound systems and immersive atmosphere make films, especially action and fantasy films, more exciting and memorable. Explain Going to the cinema is also a social activity; as a result, friends and families enjoy it as a special outing. Example For example, many families in Bangladesh go to the cinema together to watch new films during Eid holidays, and this has become an important part of the celebration. Link Therefore, people will continue to visit cinemas even if they have streaming at home.

Body Paragraph 2 · 106 words

Point Another important reason for my disagreement is that cinemas are adapting to attract audiences. Explain When customers have more choices, cinemas must give them more, as many cinemas now offer luxury seats, 3D and IMAX screens, food and drink services and special events to attract audiences. Example For instance, a young couple may choose an IMAX film for a special evening out, which is an experience that they cannot have on a sofa at home. Response Although some people argue that streaming services have many advantages, convenience alone cannot match the excitement of a shared night out. Link Consequently, cinemas are unlikely to disappear completely, and they will remain popular.

Conclusion · 36 words

In conclusion, I firmly believe that online services will not force cinemas to close. A film on the big screen remains a unique shared event, and cinemas are also finding new ways to keep customers interested.

10. MED-10 — Positive and negative effects of consumerism

Companies spend millions each year on advertising online, in magazines and on billboards. These adverts can encourage people to buy goods that they do not really need. What are the positive and negative effects of consumerism?

|---|---|
| Essay type | Advantages vs Disadvantages — Type 1 (positive and negative effects, no opinion) |
| Position | No opinion is asked for, so there is no opinion or plan sentence; both sides are discussed in balance. |
| Ideas from Idea Bank (Part 3) | Advertising, Consumerism and Buying What We Don't Need |
| Structure | Adv/Disadv guide: Although-intro → BP1 advantages (7 sentences) → BP2 disadvantages (7 sentences) → While-conclusion |
| Reused from Idea Bank | 2 sentences (highlighted) |
| Word count | Intro 34 · BP1 122 · BP2 131 · Conclusion 30 · Total 317 |

Introduction · 34 words

Companies spend huge sums on advertising, often persuading people to buy things that they do not really need. Although consumerism can cause debt and environmental damage, it also supports economic growth and encourages innovation.

Body Paragraph 1 · 122 words

Topic There is little doubt that consumerism offers considerable advantages to modern economies. Point To begin with, the most significant benefit is its contribution to economic growth. Explain This is because when people buy more goods, companies produce more and hire more workers in factories, shops and transport. Example For example, millions of workers are employed in Bangladesh's garment industry because of strong global demand for clothes, and their wages support whole families. Point In addition, consumer spending not only creates jobs but also encourages companies to improve their products. Explain As a result of fierce competition between brands, firms develop better, cheaper and more convenient goods for their customers. Summary Overall, consumerism helps to create jobs, raise living standards and improve the products that people use every day.

Body Paragraph 2 · 131 words

Topic On the other hand, it cannot be denied that consumerism also has some drawbacks. Point Firstly, many people spend money that they do not have. Explain Easy credit makes buying quick and simple; as a result, many people fall into debt through credit cards and loans, which can cause stress and family problems. Example For instance, a young worker who buys the latest phone on credit every year may spend months repaying the loan, which leaves little money for savings. Point Secondly, excessive buying can be a serious threat to the environment, as it creates huge amounts of waste. Explain If cheap clothes are thrown away after being worn only a few times, landfills grow and, consequently, land and water become more polluted. Summary Overall, these financial and environmental problems can harm both individuals and future generations.

Conclusion · 30 words

In conclusion, a culture of constant buying is now common in many countries. While consumerism may lead to personal debt and growing waste, it drives economic growth and better products.

11. MED-11 — Should advertising aimed at children be banned?

One of the prime times for advertising on TV is when children get back from school. Some people think that advertisements aimed at children should not be allowed. What is your opinion?

|---|---|
| Essay type | Agree / Disagree |
| Position | I completely agree. |
| Ideas from Idea Bank (Part 3) | Advertising and Children |
| Structure | Agree/Disagree guide: Opinion + 2 ideas → BP1 Idea 1 (P E E X L) → BP2 Idea 2 (P E X R L) → Opinion + 2 ideas in new words |
| Reused from Idea Bank | 1 sentence (highlighted) |
| Word count | Intro 43 · BP1 105 · BP2 111 · Conclusion 35 · Total 294 |

Introduction · 43 words

Many companies show television adverts in the afternoon, when children come home from school, and some people think that adverts aimed at children should be banned. I completely agree with this view because children are easily influenced and many adverts promote unhealthy food.

Body Paragraph 1 · 105 words

Point The main reason why I agree with this idea is that young children are easily influenced. Explain This is because children often do not understand that the purpose of an advert is to persuade them to buy something. Explain They believe what they see on screen; as a result, they may want every toy, snack or game that is advertised. Example For example, a seven-year-old who sees a cartoon advert for a sugary cereal may beg their parents to buy it the next day, and this can cause arguments and stress in the family. Link Therefore, it is unfair for companies to aim their adverts at such young viewers.

Body Paragraph 2 · 111 words

Point Another important reason for my agreement is that many adverts promote unhealthy food. Explain When adverts for fast food, sweets and soft drinks appear with cartoon characters and free toys, these products look attractive and fun to young viewers. Example For instance, a child who sees a burger advert every afternoon may ask for fast food several times a week, which can lead to unhealthy eating habits and obesity later in life. Response Although some people argue that a ban would harm companies and TV channels, protecting children's health is more important, and businesses can still advertise to adults. Link Consequently, governments should introduce strict rules that protect young viewers from this kind of advertising.

Conclusion · 35 words

In conclusion, I firmly believe that television advertising for children should not be allowed. Young viewers cannot judge these messages properly, and banning them would also protect children from the pressure to eat unhealthy food.

12. MED-14 — Must historical films be completely accurate?

Films that are based on historical events ought to be completely accurate. Do you agree?

|---|---|
| Essay type | Agree / Disagree |
| Position | I completely disagree. |
| Ideas from Idea Bank (Part 3) | Films, Cinema and Streaming Services |
| Structure | Agree/Disagree guide: Opinion + 2 ideas → BP1 Idea 1 (P E E X L) → BP2 Idea 2 (P E X R L) → Opinion + 2 ideas in new words |
| Reused from Idea Bank | 4 sentences (highlighted) |
| Word count | Intro 37 · BP1 106 · BP2 103 · Conclusion 40 · Total 286 |

Introduction · 37 words

It is sometimes claimed that films based on real historical events must be accurate in every detail. I completely disagree with this view because films are works of art and complete accuracy is simply impossible to achieve.

Body Paragraph 1 · 106 words

Point The main reason why I disagree with this idea is that films are works of art and entertainment, not documentaries. Explain This is because audiences go to the cinema to enjoy a story, and a film must keep them interested from beginning to end. Explain Filmmakers often need to simplify events, combine characters or add dialogue to create an engaging story; as a result, some changes are a normal part of the process. Example For example, a director may combine three real soldiers into one character, and this helps viewers to follow the story and care about what happens. Link Therefore, demanding perfect accuracy would make historical films less enjoyable.

Body Paragraph 2 · 103 words

Point Another important reason for my disagreement is that complete accuracy is impossible to achieve. Explain When filmmakers recreate the past, they must use their imagination, because nobody knows exactly what historical figures said or did in private. Example For instance, a director who makes a film about a past king must invent his private conversations, which means that some imagination cannot be avoided. Response Although some people argue that many people learn about history mainly from films, filmmakers can solve this by clearly stating when parts of the story have been changed or imagined. Link Consequently, it is unrealistic to expect historical films to be completely accurate.

Conclusion · 40 words

In conclusion, I firmly believe that films about history do not need to be accurate in every detail. Cinema is a form of storytelling and not a history lesson, and no director could record the past perfectly in any case.

13. MED-15 — Why do people buy things they do not need?

Many people buy products that they do not really need and replace old products with new ones unnecessarily. Why do people buy things they do not really need? Do you think this is a good thing?

|---|---|
| Essay type | Double Question — List + Opinion (reasons + opinion) |
| Position | Advertising and the wish to show status are the reasons; this is not a good thing. |
| Ideas from Idea Bank (Part 3) | Advertising, Consumerism and Buying What We Don't Need |
| Structure | Double Question guide (List + Opinion): Answer 1 + answer 2 → BP1 = Q1, List block (P E X P E L) → BP2 = Q2, Opinion block (P E X R L) → Both answers in new words |
| Reused from Idea Bank | 5 sentences (highlighted) |
| Word count | Intro 39 · BP1 113 · BP2 106 · Conclusion 36 · Total 294 |

Introduction · 39 words

Many people buy products they do not need and replace items that still work. This is mainly because advertising creates desires and people want to show their status, and I firmly believe that this is not a good thing.

Body Paragraph 1 · 113 words

Point One of the main reasons for this is clever advertising. Explain Advertisers are skilled at creating desires, suggesting that a new phone, car or fashion item will bring happiness, success or social status. Example For example, a teenager who sees a smartphone advert every day may begin to feel that his working phone is old-fashioned, and this makes him ask his parents for a new one. Point Another important reason is the wish to show status. Explain Some want to keep up with friends and neighbours or to show their status, and social media influencers add to this pressure by constantly showing new purchases. Link Consequently, people often buy to impress others rather than to meet real needs.

Body Paragraph 2 · 106 words

Point As for whether this is a good thing, I firmly believe that it is not because unnecessary buying pushes many families into debt. Explain Many people fall into debt through credit cards and loans, which can cause stress and family problems. Example For instance, a family that buys a new television on credit while the old one still works may struggle to pay the monthly instalments, which causes arguments at home. Response Although some people argue that consumerism has clear economic benefits, spending money that people do not have is not a healthy way to support the economy. Link Therefore, buying things we do not need is a harmful habit.

Conclusion · 36 words

In conclusion, people buy things they do not need mainly because of persuasive advertising and the desire to show their status. I firmly believe that this habit is harmful because it leads many families into debt.

14. MED-16 — Should fast food companies be allowed to advertise?

> Many people think that fast food companies should not be allowed to advertise, while others believe that all companies should have the right to advertise. What is your opinion?

|---|---|
| Essay type | Discussion (both views + opinion) |
| Position | Fast food companies should not be allowed to advertise. |
| Ideas from Idea Bank (Part 3) | Sponsorship and Marketing · Advertising and Children (planned in Part 2F) |
| Structure | Discuss Both Views guide: Both views + clean opinion → BP1 the other view (P E E X L) → BP2 my view (P E X R L) → Both themes + opinion in new words |
| Reused from Idea Bank | 5 sentences (highlighted) |
| Word count | Intro 38 · BP1 104 · BP2 112 · Conclusion 38 · Total 292 |

Introduction · 38 words

While some people argue that every company should have the right to advertise, others believe that fast food businesses should not be allowed to do so. I completely support the latter view because these adverts harm children's health.

Body Paragraph 1 · 104 words

Point On the one hand, people who support this right argue that all legal businesses should have the right to advertise, and that adults should be free to make their own choices. Explain Advertising provides important income for television channels and online platforms, which helps to fund children's programmes. Explain Many jobs are also created by the fast food industry; as a result, a ban could hurt young workers. Example For example, a burger chain that cannot promote a new branch may hire fewer students, and this would reduce the number of part-time jobs. Link For this reason, many people believe that all companies should be free to advertise.

Body Paragraph 2 · 112 words

Point On the other hand, I firmly believe that fast food companies should not be allowed to advertise because their products contribute to obesity and related diseases. Explain When adverts use cartoon characters, celebrities and free toys, children want these meals, and regular consumption contributes to childhood obesity, tooth decay and other health problems. Example For instance, a burger advert offering a free toy during a cartoon can make children beg for fast food every day, which puts pressure on busy parents. Response Although some people argue that all legal companies deserve this right, tobacco advertising is banned in many countries for the same reason. Link Consequently, fast food adverts should be banned to protect children's health.

Conclusion · 38 words

In conclusion, people hold different views on whether fast food companies should be allowed to advertise. While advertising provides income and jobs, I firmly believe that these adverts should be banned because they encourage unhealthy eating among children.

15. BUS-05 — Do good products need advertising?

If a product is good and meets consumer needs, then advertising is unnecessary. To what extent do you agree?

|---|---|
| Essay type | Agree / Disagree |
| Position | I completely disagree. |
| Ideas from Idea Bank (Part 3) | Sponsorship and Marketing · Advertising, Consumerism and Buying What We Don't Need |
| Structure | Agree/Disagree guide: Opinion + 2 ideas → BP1 Idea 1 (P E E X L) → BP2 Idea 2 (P E X R L) → Opinion + 2 ideas in new words |
| Reused from Idea Bank | 4 sentences (highlighted) |
| Word count | Intro 40 · BP1 101 · BP2 120 · Conclusion 35 · Total 296 |

Introduction · 40 words

It is sometimes claimed that a good product which meets customers' needs does not need any advertising. I completely disagree with this view because customers must first know that a product exists and small brands also need advertising to compete.

Body Paragraph 1 · 101 words

Point The main reason why I disagree with this idea is that even an excellent product needs to reach its customers. Explain This is because customers cannot buy something they do not know exists, however good it is. Explain Advertising tells consumers about new products, special offers and services that may improve their lives; as a result, people can discover things that they actually need. Example For example, a new app that helps farmers check crop prices could remain unknown for years without promotion, and this would waste a genuinely useful idea. Link Therefore, quality alone cannot bring a product to the people who need it.

Body Paragraph 2 · 120 words

Point Another important reason for my disagreement is that small brands need advertising to compete. Explain When a new company enters a market, it faces strong rivals, as large companies with big marketing budgets can dominate markets, making it difficult for small local businesses to compete, even if their products are good. Example For instance, a new local brand of healthy snacks may fail if supermarket shelves and TV screens are filled with famous brands, which hides it from customers. Response Although some people argue that word of mouth and online reviews can be powerful forms of free advertising, this process is slow, and a small company may not survive long enough to benefit. Link Consequently, good products still need advertising in order to succeed.

Conclusion · 35 words

In conclusion, I firmly believe that advertising is still necessary for all products of high quality. Without it, consumers may never hear about useful goods, and new companies also struggle to compete with established brands.

16. BUS-06 — Big marketing budgets and local products

Large businesses have big budgets for marketing and promotion, and as a result, people gravitate towards buying their products. What problems does this cause? What could be done to encourage people to buy local products?

|---|---|
| Essay type | Problem and Solution |
| Position | Problems: local shops lose customers and profits leave the local economy. Solutions: small loans and training for local producers; public campaigns for local products. |
| Ideas from Idea Bank (Part 3) | Sponsorship and Marketing · Ch. 10 Culture Idea Bank: Multinational Companies versus Local Business · Ch. 06 Work Idea Bank: Self-Employment and Entrepreneurship |
| Structure | Cause/Problem + Solution guide: 2 causes or problems + 2 solutions → BP1 (P E X P E L) → BP2, each solution fixing one point (N E X N E L) → Same ideas in new words |
| Reused from Idea Bank | 6 sentences (highlighted) |
| Word count | Intro 39 · BP1 107 · BP2 109 · Conclusion 36 · Total 291 |

Introduction · 39 words

Large companies spend huge sums on advertising, so many shoppers choose their products over local ones. This can lead to the closure of local shops and lost local income, but small loans and public campaigns can reduce these effects.

Body Paragraph 1 · 107 words

Point The most serious problem caused by this trend is that small local businesses struggle to compete. Explain With huge marketing budgets and well-known brands, large companies can attract customers away from small local shops, restaurants and producers. Example For example, when a large international supermarket opens in a town, nearby family-run grocery shops may lose customers and eventually close. Point Another problem is that money leaves the local economy. Explain There are also concerns that much of the profit made by multinational companies goes back to their home countries rather than staying in the local economy. Link Consequently, local entrepreneurs may lose their livelihoods, and the character of local communities may change.

Body Paragraph 2 · 109 words

Solution The most effective solution is for governments to help local producers to compete. Explain They can offer small loans with low interest, business training and advice, so that producers can improve their quality and attract more customers. Example For instance, a family-run grocery that uses a small loan to improve its products and packaging may win back customers from a nearby supermarket, which keeps the business open. Solution In addition, governments and community groups could run public campaigns. Explain These campaigns can remind consumers that local firms keep profits within the community, employ local people, use local suppliers and preserve local traditions. Link Together, these measures would encourage more people to buy local products.

Conclusion · 36 words

In conclusion, big marketing budgets can force local shops to close and send profits abroad. Financial support for small producers and campaigns about the value of local firms would persuade more people to buy local goods.

17. BUS-09 — Is marketing the key to business success?

> Marketing and promotion are the key to a successful business. To what extent do you agree?

|---|---|
| Essay type | Agree / Disagree |
| Position | I completely agree. |
| Ideas from Idea Bank (Part 3) | Sponsorship and Marketing · Advertising, Consumerism and Buying What We Don't Need |
| Structure | Agree/Disagree guide: Opinion + 2 ideas → BP1 Idea 1 (P E E X L) → BP2 Idea 2 (P E X R L) → Opinion + 2 ideas in new words |
| Reused from Idea Bank | 4 sentences (highlighted) |
| Word count | Intro 39 · BP1 100 · BP2 111 · Conclusion 37 · Total 287 |

Introduction · 39 words

It is often argued that marketing and promotion are the most important factors in the success of a business. I completely agree with this view because marketing helps companies to reach customers and it also builds a strong brand.

Body Paragraph 1 · 100 words

Point The main reason why I agree with this idea is that marketing helps companies to reach customers. Explain This is because customers cannot buy something they do not know exists, however good the product may be. Explain Social media has transformed marketing; as a result, even a small company can now reach a very large audience at a low cost. Example For example, a small online clothing shop in Dhaka can attract thousands of customers through a clever and low-cost social media campaign, and this can turn a small idea into a real business. Link Therefore, marketing is the first step towards commercial success.

Body Paragraph 2 · 111 words

Point Another important reason for my agreement is that marketing builds a strong brand. Explain When customers recognise and trust a name, they return to it, and marketing certainly helps businesses to reach customers, build brand recognition and compete with rivals. Example For instance, a shopper choosing between two similar soft drinks will usually pick the famous one, which shows how a strong brand helps a company to keep loyal customers. Response Although some people argue that product quality, good customer service, fair prices and innovation are equally important, customers can judge these qualities only after marketing brings them to the business. Link Consequently, marketing and promotion are the key to growth in a competitive market.

Conclusion · 37 words

In conclusion, I firmly believe that promotion is the key to building a successful company. Effective campaigns bring products to the attention of buyers, and they also create the well-known names that customers trust and choose again.

18. COM-07 — Celebrities: glamour or achievement?

Nowadays, celebrities are more famous for their glamour and wealth than for their achievements, and this sets a bad example to young people. To what extent do you agree or disagree?

|---|---|
| Essay type | Agree / Disagree |
| Position | I completely agree. |
| Ideas from Idea Bank (Part 3) | Celebrities, Influencers and Role Models |
| Structure | Agree/Disagree guide: Opinion + 2 ideas → BP1 Idea 1 (P E E X L) → BP2 Idea 2 (P E X R L) → Opinion + 2 ideas in new words |
| Reused from Idea Bank | 4 sentences (highlighted) |
| Word count | Intro 47 · BP1 108 · BP2 111 · Conclusion 40 · Total 306 |

Introduction · 47 words

It is often argued that today's celebrities are known more for their glamour and wealth than for their achievements, which is a bad example for the young. I completely agree with this view because this encourages materialism and it also gives young people false ideas about success.

Body Paragraph 1 · 108 words

Point The main reason why I agree with this idea is that celebrity culture encourages materialism among young people. Explain This is because reality television stars and influencers often show expensive clothes, cars, holidays and luxurious lifestyles. Explain Young people who follow them may come to believe that money, fame and appearance are the most important things in life; as a result, they may feel unhappy with what they have. Example For example, a teenager who follows a rich influencer may pressure their parents to buy an expensive phone, and this can cause stress for a family on a modest income. Link Therefore, this type of fame can encourage materialism and unrealistic expectations.

Body Paragraph 2 · 111 words

Point Another important reason for my agreement is that this gives young people false ideas about success. Explain When people become famous simply for their looks or money, young fans may stop seeing the value of study, effort and patience. Example For instance, a student who sees someone become famous through a single online video may decide that hard work at school is unnecessary, which can harm their future career. Response Although some people argue that sports stars show that success requires hard work, discipline and teamwork, these positive examples are often hidden by the constant attention given to wealth and glamour. Link Consequently, this celebrity culture continues to set a bad example to young people.

Conclusion · 40 words

In conclusion, I firmly believe that the modern focus on celebrity wealth and glamour is harmful to the younger generation. It makes teenagers care too much about possessions, and it also teaches them that fame matters more than real achievement.

19. REA-01 — Are books losing their importance?

Some people think books are losing importance as a source of information and entertainment. To what extent do you agree?

|---|---|
| Essay type | Agree / Disagree |
| Position | I completely agree. |
| Ideas from Idea Bank (Part 3) | Books, E-books and Reading |
| Structure | Agree/Disagree guide: Opinion + 2 ideas → BP1 Idea 1 (P E E X L) → BP2 Idea 2 (P E X R L) → Opinion + 2 ideas in new words |
| Reused from Idea Bank | 5 sentences (highlighted) |
| Word count | Intro 43 · BP1 105 · BP2 112 · Conclusion 38 · Total 298 |

Introduction · 43 words

It is often argued that books are becoming less important as a way of finding information and enjoying free time. I completely agree with this view because the internet is now the main source of information and screens have replaced books as entertainment.

Body Paragraph 1 · 105 words

Point The main reason why I agree with this idea is that the internet is now the main source of information. Explain This is because, for quick information, people often search online rather than consult a book. Explain Online information is fast, free and constantly updated; as a result, many people, especially young people, spend less time reading books than in the past. Example For example, a student who needs to know the date of a historical event will usually check their phone rather than open a history book, and this takes only a few seconds. Link Therefore, books are no longer the first place where people look for knowledge.

Body Paragraph 2 · 112 words

Point Another important reason for my agreement is that screens have replaced books as entertainment. Explain When people want to relax, many choose videos and games, which require less concentration, and short social media posts have also changed reading habits, making it harder for some people to focus on long texts. Example For instance, a commuter who once read a novel on the bus may now watch short videos on a phone, which shows how quickly leisure habits have changed. Response Although some people argue that reading a book requires deep concentration and imagination, this benefit does not stop most people from choosing easier forms of entertainment. Link Consequently, books are losing their place in everyday life.

Conclusion · 38 words

In conclusion, I firmly believe that books are becoming less important for both learning and leisure. People now turn to search engines for facts, and they also spend their free time on videos and games instead of reading.

20. REA-04 — Will e-books replace paper books?

Some people think that e-books are the death of paper books, while others think that paper books will never disappear. Discuss both sides and give your opinion.

|---|---|
| Essay type | Discussion (both views + opinion) |
| Position | Paper books will never disappear. |
| Ideas from Idea Bank (Part 3) | Books, E-books and Reading |
| Structure | Discuss Both Views guide: Both views + clean opinion → BP1 the other view (P E E X L) → BP2 my view (P E X R L) → Both themes + opinion in new words |
| Reused from Idea Bank | 6 sentences (highlighted) |
| Word count | Intro 37 · BP1 94 · BP2 107 · Conclusion 39 · Total 277 |

Introduction · 37 words

While some people argue that e-books will cause the death of paper books, others believe that printed books will never disappear. I completely support the latter view because many readers still prefer the feel of real pages.

Body Paragraph 1 · 94 words

Point On the one hand, people who expect e-books to win argue that they have many practical advantages over printed ones. Explain They are often cheaper than paper books, and some are free. Explain A single device can store thousands of books, which is convenient for travellers and students; as a result, their popularity keeps growing among young people. Example For example, a student carrying hundreds of e-books on one tablet no longer needs a heavy school bag, and this makes daily travel much easier. Link For this reason, many people believe that paper books will soon disappear completely.

Body Paragraph 2 · 107 words

Point On the other hand, I firmly believe that paper books will survive because many people still prefer paper books. Explain When people read real pages, they can concentrate without the distractions of notifications, and they do not suffer from eye strain. Example For instance, many parents still prefer to read printed picture books to their young children at bedtime, which keeps screens out of the bedroom. Response Although some people argue that e-books are cheaper and easier to carry, paper books do not need batteries and can be shared, lent or kept as part of a personal library. Link Consequently, printed books will continue to have a place in people's lives.

Conclusion · 39 words

In conclusion, people hold different views on whether e-books will replace paper books completely. While digital books are cheap and convenient, I firmly believe that paper books will never disappear because many readers prefer printed pages and fewer distractions.

21. SPO-08 — Must sports stars always be role models?

Professional sports people are often idolised by young children. Some people think that they, therefore, have a responsibility to be good role models at all times for children. Do you agree or disagree?

|---|---|
| Essay type | Agree / Disagree |
| Position | I completely agree. |
| Ideas from Idea Bank (Part 3) | Celebrities, Influencers and Role Models |
| Structure | Agree/Disagree guide: Opinion + 2 ideas → BP1 Idea 1 (P E E X L) → BP2 Idea 2 (P E X R L) → Opinion + 2 ideas in new words |
| Reused from Idea Bank | 3 sentences (highlighted) |
| Word count | Intro 39 · BP1 100 · BP2 105 · Conclusion 39 · Total 283 |

Introduction · 39 words

Because children often idolise professional sports people, it is often argued that these stars must always be good role models. I completely agree with this view because children copy their behaviour and sports stars benefit greatly from public attention.

Body Paragraph 1 · 100 words

Point The main reason why I agree with this idea is that children copy the behaviour of their heroes. Explain This is because young fans see these players as examples of success, so they admire everything they do on and off the field. Explain When a famous player behaves badly, the story is reported everywhere; as a result, even very young children can see it. Example For example, if a star footballer attacks a referee, young players may start arguing with referees in school matches, and this can damage the spirit of the game. Link Therefore, children copy them, and this gives them a responsibility.

Body Paragraph 2 · 105 words

Point Another important reason for my agreement is that sports stars benefit greatly from public attention. Explain When players become famous, they should give something back, because they benefit from public attention and money from fans and sponsors. Example For instance, a cricketer who appears in advertisements earns a lot of money because children admire them, which means that they should protect that trust. Response Although some people argue that celebrities are ordinary human beings who did not choose to be role models, these players chose a public career and accepted its rewards. Link Consequently, players who accept these rewards should also accept their duty to behave well in public.

Conclusion · 39 words

In conclusion, I firmly believe that top athletes have a duty to set a good example for children at all times. Young fans imitate what they see, and the wealth and fame that players enjoy also come with responsibility.
